CD Baseball News

The CD baseball team is pleased to announce that Mr. Josh Wise and Mr. Jim Chronister will be throwing out the first pitch before today's Senior Parent Recognition Game against Lower Dauphin. Mr. Wise was chosen by senior center fielder Sam Barbera as his most influential teacher here at CD and Mr. Chronister was chosen by senior shortstop/pitcher Patrick Reagan as his most influential teacher. Additionally we would like to recognize Mr. Dennis Smith as being Cameron Funk's most influential teacher. Cameron is a senior pitcher on the team. We thank you all for being positive influences on your students. Game time today is 4:15.

CD Baseball News

The CD baseball team is pleased to announce that, once again, Mitch Condran will attempt to throw out the first pitch for today's game vs CV. It looks like the weather is going to cooperate today. Mitch, if you remember, was chosen by senior second baseman Ryan Stramitis as his most influential teacher here at CD. Also, we would like to recognize Mrs. Michelle Sweigert. While she won't be available to throw out the first pitch today, she was chosen by senior third baseman/pitcher, Nick Laird, as his most influential teacher here at CD. The coaches, players, and parents would like to publicly thank you, Michelle, for being such a positive influence on your students.

The CD Baseball team is pleased to announce that today's ceremonial first pitch will be thrown out by Mary Romberger. Mary was chosen by senior first basemen/pitcher Chris Nolan as his most influential teacher here at CD. Game time is sent for 4:15 pm and apparently Mary has a filthy cutter that she's not afraid to throw so we'll see what she brings!

CD Baseball News

Brian Morris' pinch hit single scored Ryan Stramitis and Bryce Wolford to tie Cumberland Valley 6-6 in the 7th inning of yesterday's Mid Penn Commonwealth Baseball Game. Nate Tessitore singled to drive in Morris with the go ahead run as the Ram's came from behind to win 8-6. Sophomore Justin Rohrer was lights out on the mound picking up his second varsity win. The rams travel to Muhlenberg tonight for a game under the lights at 7 pm.

CD Baseball News

The CD baseball team is pleased to announce that we will be continuing a tradition that we began last year of honoring our senior players' most influential teachers by having them throw out the ceremonial first pitch at each of our home games. For our opening game, tomorrow vs. Muhlenberg, Janelle Burger will be throwing out the first pitch. Janelle was selected by senior catcher, Jon Romberger as his most influential teacher. Come out, dress warm, and cheer Janelle and the team on. First pitch is at 4pm.
