Baseball Fans! Hopefully the rain has left us and you'll be able to come and watch the wonderful Mrs. Jenn Shaffer throw out the ceremonial first pitch before today's game vs. Red Land at 4:15 pm. Mrs. Shaffer was selected by senior outfielder Anthony Dorris as his most influential teacher because she is a great English teacher and he loves having her as his TV Broadcast teacher. Thank you Mrs. Shaffer for being such a positive influence on your students and being one of the awesome every day special features of RamNation!

The Rams baseball team won its 3rd straight game in walkoff fashion yesterday 8 to 7 over Mifflin County. Down 7 to 6 in the 7th inning Carson Beleski put the ball in play with the bases loaded and Scotty McManamon and Troy Schreffler scored on the way to win the game. Christopher Smith roped 2 hits for the Rams and Schreffler belted his 3rd home run of the year. Freshman Reilly Shafer picked up his first varsity win on the mound throwing 4 strong innings of relief. The Rams play Red Land here at home tomorrow at 4:15.

Attention Baseball Fans - The first pitch before today's game vs. Mifflin County will be thrown out by Senor Sheldon Heil. Sr. Heil was chosen by senior pitcher, Christian Bates, as his most influential teacher because he genuinely cares about his students. He not only teaches Spanish but he gives life lessons, whether it be through his personal experiences or just advice. He thoroughly invests his time in his students, to actually get to know them. Even if you had him as a teacher two years ago, he'll stop you in the hall to check up on things. He's a great person and a great teacher. RamNation salutes your greatness Sr. Heil and wishes you a sincere FELICITACIONES on being such a positive influence on your students here at CD. First pitch today is 4:15 pm. Come on out, its going to be una buenas tardes!

Baseball Fans! The Rams would like to announce that today's first pitches will be thrown out by the lights duo of Mr. Steve Tecau and Mr. Four Chapman! Mr. Tecau was chosen by senior OF/P, Connor Tressler as his most influential teacher because he is always in a good mood and shows everyone endless respect. He lightens the mood in the classroom and made an AP class fun and enjoyable. He is also a beast when it comes to being in shape and running! Mr. Chapman was chosen by senior OF, Collin Shaffer, as his most influential teacher because he finds a way to keep class very interesting every day. He is always full of energy and very clearly loves what he does. Sports and Entertainment Marketing isn't the most interesting class, but he finds ways to make it enjoyable every day. RamNation salutes you both for the greatness you bring to the CD Teaching Family. First pitch is at 4:15 pm today for our game vs. State College. Come on out and catch the greatest (and only) first pitch pitching duo in CD Rams history. It's certain to be a display for the ages!
