

1972 - 1973

1972 CD Football Season

The 1972 Central Dauphin Rams success can be explained very easily. How they were able to win the Central Penn Championship was a combination of vision, hard work and a lot of talent - with a fair share of luck added of course.

The 1972 Central Dauphin Rams success can be explained very easily. How they were able to win the Central Penn Championship was a combination of vision, hard work and a lot of talent - with a fair share of luck added of course.

This was not a team like years past-- they were smaller - both in the backfield and on the line. The question was: "How could they compete with the other teams?"

Head Coach Gary Sheeler and his staff had to find a way. The answer came -- SPEED - No, not the tremendous team trainer in 1972 and for many years to come - Mr. SPEED Ebersole -- The first and foremost SPEED came from the player who was to become the fastest halfback in the Central Penn conference - one Steve Musser.

Every day, the team worked on SPEED - not just Musser and the running backs- but also on the offensive/defensive lines AND the Special Teams. From all those wind sprints to running the Hill, every day was a practice focused on getting faster and searching for more SPEED.

With every game, the concept of a TEAM also became stronger. Everyone did what was asked of them and EVERYONE gave 110%. SPEED helped the team to victory, but what actually won the games and the Championship, was a group of very talented young men that came together in that magical 1972 season as a true TEAM.

The background of the slide features a light gray grid pattern. Faintly visible behind the text is a stylized illustration of a person's head in profile, facing right, with a green outline. Below the head, a hand is shown with fingers spread, also with a green outline. The entire scene is set against a white background with a black border at the top and bottom, which includes green diagonal stripes in the corners.
