Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Bryce Thoman
Class of 2020

Bryce started 6 games thus far for Temple University. In the last 3 games the Owls defeated South Florida and had narrow losses to Houston and Navy.

Bryce helped CD to a District 3 title and a trip to the 6A state championship game in 2019.

We wish Bryce and his teammates the best of luck the rest of the way!

Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Mason Griffiths
Class of 2019

Mason was one of our team leaders in 2018 and helped guide us to the District finals that year. He then took his services to West Chester University. This season, Mason started at Tight End, Fullback, and H-back for the 7-4 Golden Rams.

We wish Mason and his West Chester teammates the best of luck in the future.

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Chad Layton
Class of 2020

Chad was a star offensive lineman on the Rams 2019 team that made it all the way to Hersheypark stadium for the 6A state championship. He still holds the CD all-time squat record of 640 lbs! After turning down an offer from the Air Force Academy, Chad joined the squad at Indiana University (PA). The redshirt sophomore played in every game this season, including the Crimson Hawks PSAC Championship Game victory over Shepherd University last week.

We wish Chad and his IUP teammates the best of luck in the NCAA playoffs!

Presents: THE NEXT LEVEL

Grant Smith
Class of 2018

After a stellar senior year at CD in which he was selected to play in the Big 33 game, Grant joined the IUP squad as a Tight End in 2018. He made an immediate impact as a freshman that season, and since then he has continued to thrive as an all-conference player. As a senior this year, Grant has been a key contributor in the Crimson Hawks PSAC championship season. In the championship game vs highly ranked Shepherd University, Grant hauled in 4 passes for 44 yards.

We wish Grant and his IUP teammates the best of luck in the NCAA playoffs!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Nick Chimienti
Class of 2020

Nick was one of the stars who led us to the 6A state championship game in 2019 as a wide receiver and defensive back. Nick is now at Stonybrook which is a Division I program in the Colonial Athletic Association. This season, Nick has played in all 9 games and has racked up several tackles and a few pass break ups from his defensive back position.

We wish Nick and his Stonybrook teammates the best of luck

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Gabe Bollinger
Class of 2018

Gabe was an outstanding offensive lineman for CD and helped the Rams reach the district championship game in 2018. For the second year in a row Gabe was a full time starter on the OL at Michigan Tech. The engineering major helped the Huskies put up some big numbers on offense in 2022. More importantly, Gabe has a job already lined up at an engineering firm after graduation next month!

Best of luck to Gabe in his future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Blaise Heshler
Class of 2021

Blaise was an all-conference lineman for CD and a key player in the 2019 6A district championship team. His accomplishments led him to accept a full scholarship offer to Division I Sacred Heart University, a perennial power in the Northeast Conference. This year as a redshirt freshman, Blaise earned a starting job on the OL for the Pioneers.

We wish Blaise the best of luck!

Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Darrion Thomas
Class of 2022

After an all-conference year at TE for the Rams, Darrion joined the squad at Millersville University. As a true freshman, Darrion became the starting fullback for the Marauders who had their most successful season in many years.

We wish Darrion and his teammates the best of luck heading into 2023!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Paul Clark - class of 2021

After leading the district championship team in tackles in 2019 and enjoying a successful 2020 season, Paul is now continuing his playing career at Washington and Jefferson. Prior to his season being cut short due to an injury, Paul was rotating in at linebacker for the Presidents who finished the season at 9-2.

We wish Paul the best of luck in the future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Max Mosey - Class of 2022

After a stellar high school career where he helped lead the Rams to the 6A state championship game at QB, Max joined the squad at Holy Cross, one of the top DI FCS programs in the country. As a freshman, Max moved to wide receiver where he showed continuous improvement at his new position. The Crusaders finished the regular season with a perfect 11-0 record and ranked in the top 5 in the nation as they head into the NCAA playoffs.

We wish Max and his teammates the best of luck!

Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Carter LaPorte
Class of 2019

After having an all-conference senior season at center for the Rams in 2018, Carter joined the team at Stevenson University in Maryland. In this, his senior season, he earned a starting role on the offensive line for a few games and played in all 11. The Mustangs finished the regular season with an 8-2 record and were invited to play Johns Hopkins in a Centennial-MAC Bowl game to cap off the season.

We wish Carter the best of luck in his future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Malachi Bowman

Class of 2021

After an all-state senior year at CD, Malachi joined the squad at East Stroudsburg University. In this, his second year, he earned a starting job in the defensive secondary where he posted 37 tackles, 4 pass breakups, and also 261 yards in the return game for the Warriors.

We wish Malachi and his teammates the best of luck in the future.

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Adam Burkhart
Class of 2019

After a stellar career at Central Dauphin where he amassed an incredible number of tackles and earned Defensive MVP in the league in 2018, Adam then joined the squad at Bloomsburg University. In his final campaign for the Huskies in 2022, Adam was appointed team captain and amassed 60 tackles. Most importantly, he will graduate later this year with a degree in cyber security.

We wish Adam the best of luck in his future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Tysen Spriggs
Class of 2019

Tysen began playing in our CD program from a very young age. After his final season where he and his fellow seniors led the Rams to the district 3 championship game, Tysen joined the squad at Albright College where he just finished his final season. In his last campaign for the Lions, he was part of the defensive line rotation on Saturdays.

We wish Tysen the best in his future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Kyle Yeager
Class of 2022

After an outstanding career on the offensive line for the Rams, Kyle accepted a full scholarship offer to continue his career as a student-athlete at Division I Sacred Heart University. 2022 was a redshirt season for Kyle as he developed in the offensive line system for the Pioneers, a perennial power in the Northeast Conference.

We wish Kyle and his teammates the best in 2023!

Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Ben Stewart
Class of 2022

Ben was a two year starter on the offensive line and a heavyweight wrestler for the Rams. After a very productive high school career, Ben joined the squad at Millersville University. In 2022, the true freshman redshirted for the Marauders, who enjoyed one of their best seasons in many years.

We wish Ben and his teammates the best of luck in 2023!

Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Shamarr Joppy
Shamilyn Joppy
Class of 2021

After very productive careers at CD, the Joppy brothers took their talents to Lackawanna Junior College in 2022. Both of them saw action for the Falcons who were ranked #11 in the nation heading into their bowl game and whose roster is loaded with Division I prospects.

We wish the Joppy brothers the best of luck in the future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Daniel Ficca
Class of 2021

After an outstanding 3-year varsity career at CD, Daniel joined the squad at Widener University. In this, his sophomore year, he saw a lot of action at the linebacker position and on special teams.

We wish Dan and his teammates the best of luck in the future!

Presents:
THE NEXT LEVEL

Jamaal Bellamy
Class of 2021

Jamaal enjoyed a very successful senior season in 2020 where the Rams were ranked nationally by High School Football America. He then joined the squad at Hudson Valley Community College in New York. In 2022, Jamaal enjoyed a stellar season as team captain and starting nose guard for the Vikings. He is on schedule to graduate this spring and continue his career in 2023 at a 4-year school.

We wish Jamaal the best of luck in his future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Ahren Stauffer
Class of 2022

After an outstanding 3-year varsity career as a kicker and punter at CD, Ahren joined the squad at Lafayette College, a Division I program in the Patriot League. Ahren saw some action as a true freshman in 2022 for the Leopards who finished the season with a win over their arch-rival Lehigh in the most-played college football rivalry in the nation.

We wish Ahren the best of luck in the future!

Presents:

THE NEXT LEVEL

Gavyn Hoffman

Class of 2017

Gavyn was a significant contributor on the defensive line in the Rams 2016 Mid-Penn championship season. This year, he worked his way into the starting lineup at Shippensburg University after spending a few years away from the sport after high school.

We wish Gavyn and his Raider teammates the best of luck in 2023!
