CD Music News

Congratulations to the indoor color guard, majorettes, and percussion ensemble for their excellent performances this past weekend at Atlantic Coast Championships. The majorettes achieved their highest score ever in the intermediate A class. The color guard, which was promoted last year, was again promoted this year, making finals and placing 5th in the intermediate A class, also achieving their highest score at that level. The percussion ensemble medalled for the first time at Championships, finishing in third at finals, earning the bronze medal, and also achieving their highest score ever. Congratulations to all of the students and staff members on a great season full of wonderful performances that represented CDSD well.

On Friday four of our music groups participated in the Heritage Music Festival in Boston. Each of the groups did an excellent job and our school groups received the Spirit Award for outstanding excellence in representing their school and their overall positive attitude and behavior.

The Chamber Orchestra received a Silver Award.

The Men's Choir received a Gold Award and 2nd place in their division.

Chanson received a Gold Award and 2nd place in their division.

Singers received a Gold Award and tied for 1st place in their division and also tied for the overall choral award.

Along with these distinctions, Jeremy Peisner was given a Maestro Award for his musical excellence as accompanist for the Men's Choir.

Congratulations to all these groups for a job well done.
