CD Swimming News

Congratulations to our Boys and Girls Swim Team for a fabulous showing at Mid Penn Champs this week. With more medals than the team has gotten in over 20 years, the Rams put on quite a show. Placing in the top 8 and receiving medals were Ally Yoder, Karli Averill, Autumn Fortney, Aliya Rabino, and Dalton Will. A special Congratulations to 3rd place finisher Hunter Keyes and for our first silver medal in about 20 years as well goes to Jonah Key.

Lastly, the boys relay of Jonah Key, Dalton Will, Jack Dowling , and Javan Kelley, broke a team record that has stood since 1986. Well done boys.

Districts will be held in 2 weeks and the team will find out Sunday who makes it.

Well done Rams.

CD Swimming News

It was a tough night for the CD Swimming last night coming up short against the Eagles of CV. However, some top performances were turned in by many swimmers. Jonah Key was the only first place of the night in which he dropped two more of his personal best. Good luck to the Rams as they take on state ranked Hershey tomorrow night.
